six lanes each, both for track 1 and track 2, with four turn loops and a first corner where all three turn loops are combined, and a last corner where two turn loops are combined. The track is 2.8 km long. The raceway was a few days after the track had been built. It was used for the inaugural VTT World Championship in 1973. It was also used by the Russian NTV team in 1975. The first FIM 1000 m track race at Agrigento took place on the 8th of June 1974 with the traditional 3 km straight and most of the other curves from the early years of motor racing in Europe. During the 1990s the raceway was partly closed because of lack of use. In 2003 the track was re-opened after extensive restoration. Other World Championships were held at Agrigento in 1976 and in 1988. In 1994 the track was closed again because of lack of use as a result of the financial crisis of that time. After more than 15 years the track was re-opened for the first time since its original construction. References Category:Motorsport venues in ItalyIn an effort to break a 108-year drought of a Chicago Cubs title, the rebuilding team has made a bold move to bring their Game 5 starter to the World Series with them. Pitching coach Chris Bosio will take the field, replacing Rick Porcello, who was the winning pitcher in Game 3. 82157476af
